WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office, 25 Church street, Telephone 105.

At the request of the Baltic authorities, Raymond Denerous, age 24, formerly of that place and East Hartford, was placed under arrest Thursday forenoon on the charge of bastardy, the complainant being Miss Marion Desette of Baltic. Denerous was taken to Baltic later in the day to await trial. The young man protested his innocence, saying that there are others implicated. Denerous was cook for Co. C, Third Regiment, State Guard at the regimental maneuvers at Baltic last week.

Visitors at the victory garden of the American Thread Co. in the past week have found the crops growing splendidly. Many early vegetables have already been picked. According to Supt. James M. Smith the garden never looked better with the possible exception of the sweet corn which is from two to three weeks late in ripening.

The 11th and 12th annual annual of the St. Joseph's hospital, the first held since this city entered the war has just been completed.

One of the most interesting and valuable accounts of the activities of the institution from 1917 to Sept. 30, 1919. A combined statistical report for the two years contains the following information: Patients admitted 1297; total number cared for 1414; number of town patients 735; number of town patients from other towns 57; number of births 19; number of deaths 19; number of patients discharged 1255; daily average attendance 20; number of ambulance calls 123; average cost per patient $1818; $1480; $1217. Since the opening of the hospital Jan. 1st 1919 up to the present it is estimated that more than 9,000 patients have been treated. This does not include the children in the out department. For some time the institution has appeared to have outgrown its quarters.

Don't streak or ruin your material in a poor dye. Insist on "Diamond Dyes." Easy directions in package.

"FREEZONE"

Lift Off Corns! No Pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting. Then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

STONINGTON

This is huckleberry week for Warden Cornelius B. Crandall, and each day he has been picking in fields in North Stonington, familiar to him since boyhood days, and which seem to produce each season as prolific as in the long ago, when as a boy, huckleberries seemed to grow on every bush. It is the warden's annual outing and he enjoys it. He was accompanied Thursday by William Bellamy, of New London. Just before taking a trolley car from Westford to North Stonington, Warden Crandall said: "If I don't show Bill some berries, I'll show him docks of cows, and either will be new to that city fellow; don't you know?"

Stonington Pointers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Picnic For Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary.
It is hoped a large number of members of the Y. M. C. A. auxiliary will attend the picnic given by the New London Auxiliary at 7 o'clock corners next Tuesday. Members may go in their automobiles or by trolley. See adv.

BREED THEATRE

Tom Moore heads the bill at the Breed theatre today and Saturday in Ben Ames Williams' Saturday Evening Post story, The Great Accident. Here is Tom Moore in the kind of a part you love to see him play—a regular American boy with all the faults and irregularities that regular boys are apt to have. You will revel in the realism of The Great Accident and you will go away feeling that here at last is a picture that teaches a lesson without moralizing or preaching.

Zasu Pitts, the most unique comedienne on the screen will also be seen in Bright Skies, a drama of love, bubbling over with good cheer.

The Pathé News will complete this big double bill.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Bristol—The barbecue of the Merchants' division of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at Lake Compo next week.

New Britain—Twenty-two high school boys of the H. O. T. A. returned Tuesday from Camp Devens, Mass., after six weeks' course of intensive military training. The boys are in good physical trim.

Haddam—Robert Miner, 8, an inmate of the county temporary home in Haddam, died Tuesday afternoon at the Mol-dieux hospital of injuries received Sunday morning when he was struck by an automobile.

Milford—Harry Graham on an escapee from the Milford boys' school got home late Tuesday afternoon at 11 o'clock, having been in the local police station, evidently anxious to be sent back to his dormitory and books.

Hartford—Frank Lynch of New Haven, recently appointed by Secretary of State Frederick L. Perry as first assistant clerk, began his duties in the secretary's office at the capitol this week. The place of first assistant clerk has been vacant for some time.

New Haven—Dr. Harold Hershey, superintendent of the hospital, and Miss Maude Landis, director of the Connecticut training school for nurses, New Haven hospital, have planned to offer a three years' course of nurse training to non-resident students; that is, it is planned to allow, beginning in September, members of the entering class in nursing to live at home while carrying on their work.

HAIR HINTS

Helpful Advice for Care of the Hair
Worthy the Attention of Everyone
Who Would Avoid Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Gray Hair and Baldness

If your hair is getting thin or you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, use Parian hair cream for a week and you will surely be surprised to see how quickly it checks falling hair and removes every sign of dandruff and itching scalp.

"Before going to bed I rub a little Parian hair cream into my hair," says a woman whose luxurious, soft and fluffy hair is greatly admired. "This keeps my hair from being dry, faded or weakly, helps it to retain its natural color and beauty, and makes it easy to dress attractively."

If you want a fresh, clean scalp, and a wealth of live-looking hair, radiant with health and beauty, don't delay. Start using Parian hair cream now—tonight. A large bottle is inexpensive at Lee & Osmond's, and money refunded if not entirely satisfactory.

"The new mode is always a step onward."—EMERSON

SOME WOMEN dress unattractively, not because they don't want the right things, but because they are sold the wrong things.

THERE are three good reasons why patrons of this store are sure of getting only the right things:

- [1] We begin by confining ourselves to fashions that are smart, enduring and economical.
- [2] Our salespeople are interested in their work and your satisfaction. They are trained to study individual types and to aid in the selection of appropriate clothes.
- [3] You are made to feel that you are a welcome guest, free to look or buy as you may choose.
